

St Thomas the Apostle Parish Camp Hill

No. 17

Third Sunday of Easter

26 April 2020

Dear Parishioners,

Before the emergence of the current pandemic, our parish aimed to foster a sense of community and interconnectedness among ourselves and neighbouring parishes. Devotionally, our collective input gave birth to a parish prayer which espoused this vision as part of our spiritual enrichment. But little did we know it was also a prayerful journey that will open other possibilities of appreciating God's presence in and around our world through the social media platform.

It is interesting to note under the leadership of Caroline Sarra, the Parish Pastoral Council did not resort to defeatism and resignation in the face of the current pandemic. Such attitude so helps us to gain a favourable perspective in finding new ways of entering into a relationship with God, ourselves, and friends at this time. "We want to get it right," she keeps saying. And we are!

We are happy to announce that we will be launching a parish Facebook page this week, which can be found by searching St Thomas the Apostle Parish Camp Hill.

I invite all our parish members, friends and young parents to set aside time and set up a Facebook account [if we have not done so!] and be ready to like our page, tag your friends and comment constructively for the common good of our parish. Be assured that we took the necessary precaution required by the Archdiocese in setting up the page, and have assigned tech savvy members to help us keep it alive. Secondly, you may also like to download this app, Zoom Cloud Meeting to iPhone and Android, create your account. I am hoping to use this platform to share scripture readings and reflections for that weekend every Wednesdays 10-10:30 am, for example. So much that is spiritually valuable will flow from these.

Perhaps it is providential that this launch happens on the 3rd Weekend of Easter. The Gospel is so inspiring. The two disciples walking to Emmaus are sad, their hopes shattered because of their partial understanding of what Jesus' mission means, and unaware of Jesus' presence in their journey, "stopped short, their faces downcast." Our story, right? There are days of sterile sadness, worries and disappointments. At least, I know after the private weekend masses I celebrate inside our empty parish church often leaves me somewhat downcast. How can we experience the Risen Lord Jesus in such low spirits? That is Jesus' question to us. He's walking along with his disciples and with us, is an opportunity to know that Jesus wants us to invite him in our hearts and homes. In our everyday life, Jesus joins us to walk, expounding to us the value of his suffering, death, and resurrection. The Emmaus walk is an example of being in constant conversation with Jesus through prayer. By walking together with Jesus, we are in touch with ourselves and our feelings, as well as with the real person of the Risen Jesus.

God Bless and stay safe.

Fr Christopher

This Saturday we commemorate Anzac Day. We mark the anniversary of the first major military action by Australian and New Zealand soldiers in WWI on April 25, 1915 and remember all who serve or have served, and those who have died in wars, conflicts and peacekeeping operations.

Fr Christopher will celebrate Anzac Day Mass without a congregation.

We are hoping to have this up on our website for you to watch, so please keep an eye out.

Lest We Forget

They shall grow not old,
as we that are left grow old;
Age shall not weary them,
nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun
and in the morning,
We will remember them.
