GOSPEL REFLECTION by Michael Tate

The loving gaze of a mother towards her newborn simply gives rise to the obligation to feed the baby. There is no special reward for doing her motherly duty. This is how Jesus sees 'good works'. If we perceive our relationships with people correctly, then so-called 'good works' are no more than our duty and don't deserve special congratulatory access to Heaven.

If we saw human beings as 'formed from the dust of the earth ... a manifestation of God in the world, a sign of his presence, a trace of his glory' (St John Paul II, Evangelium Vitae 34.2), then that perception leads to certain ways of relating which are obliging. Like the servant in the story, we will have done no more than our duty.

We might take a moment to pause to get our perception of human beings correct so that our response may prepare us for the free gift of heavenly life.

A Prayer for Mental Health Week 2019

We pray, in Mental Health Week 2019, for all those people who suffer with a mental illness
For their families, friends and carers.

We pray that the Australian Community and the Catholic Community, in particular,
will be welcoming and accepting to all people.

We pray, especially, for the Ministry of Catholic Psychiatric Pastoral Care in the Archdiocese of Brisbane. Amen.
